FINANCE COMMITTEE’S MOTION TO VACATE OR DISMISS ORDER
TO SHOW CAUSE WITH RESPECT TO JEFFREY W. STEIDLEY
OF THE STEIDLEY LAW FIRM

The Finance Committee respectfully requests that the Court vacate or dismiss the Order to Show Cause (Doc. #1430) requiring Jeffrey W. Steidley to appear before the Court to show cause why he should not be sanctioned, held in contempt and otherwise required to respond because of his law firm’s conduct with respect to $50,000 in claim payment funds. In support of this motion, the Finance Committee would show the Court as follows:

1. On June 13, 2018, the Court entered an order adjourning the originally scheduled show cause hearing, to August 23, 2018, based on the representation of counsel for the Finance Committee’s that Mr. Steidley had requested, and the Finance Committee had agreed to allow Steidley additional time to provide proof of distribution of the claim funds at issue.

2. By July 23, 2018, Mr. Steidley had returned undistributed funds and provided proof of distribution for the remaining funds at issue.

3. With the return of funds and proof of distribution provided by Mr. Steidley, the SF-DCT's inquiry regarding the $50,000 in claims payments has been satisfied. Accordingly, the Finance committee no longer seeks sanctions against Mr. Steidley, and it is no longer necessary or equitable to proceed with a show cause hearing. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(6) ("On a motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgement, order or proceeding for the following reasons... (6) the judgement has been satisfied, released or discharged, or a prior judgement upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application.").

Dated: August 1, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,
