ORDER No. 27I
(Modifying Requirement for Second Reviews)

To facilitate the processing of claims under the Revised Settlement Program, the court, acting under its retained powers in paragraph 5 of Order No. 27, hereby relieves the Claims Office of the requirement that, before approval, current disease compensation claims be subjected to separate reviews by at least two Claims Officers and directs that such additional reviews be performed only to the extent that the Claims Administrator, in the exercise of her discretion, believes necessary or appropriate either to assure proper quality control or because of the nature of the claim or supporting documentation.

This the 27th day of December, 1996.
