ORDER No. 36A
(Revising Order Pertaining to Production and Exchange of Information Regarding Ongoing Studies)

Order No. 36, pertaining to the production and exchange of information regarding ongoing studies, is revised to make the order conditionally reciprocal. The order applies to all plaintiffs and defendants and plaintiffs' and defendants' counsel, including the Dow Chemical Corporation.

This Court believes that these reciprocal obligations should also apply to "ongoing studies" sponsored by or submitted to Dow Corning and recommends that the bankruptcy court in Michigan authorize such disclosures.

All reports pursuant to Order No. 36 should be filed in-camera, and no report will be divulged until the Court has determined there has been compliance with the requirements of Order 36 by both plaintiffs and defendants.

This the 9th day of May, 1997.
